ECRchat	This week is a bit unusual. After two months of lovely chatting with you all, we're thinking some changes may be in order. #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:01:29 +0000
JackieKirkham	@KL_Wheat I'm here too, but also in the midst of coding transcripts, so will be dipping in and out! #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:01:53 +0000
ECRchat	Hmm... Not as fascinating as our usual topics. Introductions first to make sure we're not here all alone? #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:02:20 +0000
NickOsbaldiston	#ECRChat never chatted on here - but it sounds like fun	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:02:49 +0000
KL_Wheat	@ECRchat Hi chatters! Katie here, hosting along with @snarkyphd today. Hoping for lots of feedback today! #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:03:25 +0000 helen_kara	@ECRchat So what kind of changes are you considering? #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:03:29 +0000
DiseaseMapper	@ECRchat I am here - running models, so have time to kill in between ;-) #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:04:30 +0000 ECRchat	Hi to everyone who has checked in so far :) If you're not sure what changes might be afoot, here's some info http://t.co/eZJl0lgp #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:04:43 +0000 cheeryresearch	@ECRchat Hi, Jenni here, only my 2nd chat so not sure I feel qualified to comment on changes (but I might anyway) #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:04:53 +0000 ECRchat	The key points for discussion are timing, frequency, topics and hosting. We might try to cover them in that order. #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:05:03 +0000 afrayn	@ECRchat timing is difficult with 11hr gap - for me 10am is a bit early, at least by 11am you can feel you've done something! #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:05:32 +0000 snarkyphd	#ECRChat ok I'm swapping between account so we shall see how that goes. hi hi!	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:05:39 +0000
JellyCat23	Only 1hr away! RT @onsci: #onsci on Science & Politics 13 Sept at 9pm AEST, 12pm BST and 7am EST. Please join us! #ecrchat #phdchat #smp2012	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:06:07 +0000
KiraVClarke	@ECRchat Hi all. Only chatted once before so not sure how much I can contribute to today's discussion #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:06:54 +0000
CureCancerAust	#ECRChat Edith here from @CureCancerAust {{waves}}	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:07:00 +0000
martin_eve	@ECRchat I have some problems with timing, the WiFi in the research library where I usually work in the daytime isn't up to Twitter #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:07:14 +0000 afrayn	@KiraVClarke @ECRchat comment is free! #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:07:31 +0000
KL_Wheat	@kiravclarke @cheeryresearch Your opinions are still very much valuable to us! #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:08:03 +0000
ECRchat	So we're on timing first #ECRchat a few timezones change in October... Changes to: UK 10:00 (BST) Europe 11:00(CEST) Australia 21:00 (EST)	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:08:08 +0000 helen_kara	@ECRchat Timing works OK for a few time zones. No time would work every week. If majority want to change time, I'm fine with that too #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:08:12 +0000
KL_Wheat	@CureCancerAust Hi Edith! waves back #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:08:28 +0000
DiseaseMapper	@ECRchat Timing not too much of an issue for me. 10 or 11am are both ok. #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:08:34 +0000
ECRchat	#ECRChat I hope those times are correct.	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:09:35 +0000
CureCancerAust	RT @KL_Wheat: @CureCancerAust Hi Edith! waves back #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:09:57 +0000
martin_eve	@ECRchat also worth considering who's excluded if teaching at that time; might not geo-specific fragmented chats work better? #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:10:06 +0000
NickOsbaldiston	#ECRchat awesome timing for me - tweeting with my 6month year old asleep on my chest	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:10:06 +0000
KL_Wheat	@ECRchat Mixed feelings about 10am chat so far. How about Aus chatters - 9pm too late or ok? #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:10:14 +0000
ResearchersAtEd	RT @ECRchat: The key points for discussion are timing, frequency, topics and hosting. We might try to cover them in that order. #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:10:30 +0000 snarkyphd	I would be fine with 9pm but it would be too much every week #ECRchat #nana	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:10:31 +0000 snarkyphd	#ECRchat given that we change in different directions, I don't see a real alternative?	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:11:06 +0000
DiseaseMapper	@ECRchat I'll get to try out both times soon - heading to Oz in January for 3 months! #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:11:27 +0000
KL_Wheat	@martin_eve On that note, there is a US-timed chat starting TODAY, which will be at 8pm in the UK, 7pm after clocks go back I think #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:11:39 +0000 JackieKirkham	@ECRchat I'll try & work round whatever time. How would it work if it was a UK evening?(#phdchat seems to get plenty from all over) #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:12:28 +0000
martin_eve	@KL_Wheat don't think it's a prob to have segmented synchronous chats & async discussion on same channel, but I'd prefer an evening #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:12:30 +0000
CureCancerAust	#ECRchat @ecrchat I'm ok with 9pm in Australia	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:12:31 +0000 interactivate	@snarkyphd weekly sounds like a big commitment for #ecrchat organisers. And probably more often than I personally would want to participate.	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:12:54 +0000
Julzpreston	@snarkyphd #ECRchat 9pm in Australia is good for me, though I agree not every week.	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:13:25 +0000
KL_Wheat	@JackieKirkham By UK evening, the Aus chatters are mainly in bed, so we wouldn't all be able to chat together #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:13:35 +0000
DiseaseMapper	@ECRchat I like to leave work at work, so probably wouldn't participate in an evening chat....but, you'll never please everyone! #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:14:13 +0000 helen_kara	@JackieKirkham @ECRchat UK evenings busier than daytimes for me - there's #acwri and #ecrbook and #SWSCmedia for a start #phdchat #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:14:21 +0000 epsgrads	Still time to get in on the #ECRchat action right now! Topic: Housekeeping, what's working, what's not - http://t.co/LV87NhfZ	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:14:37 +0000
ECRchat	Seems like timing an issue for some, not others, wonder if we decrease the frequency, does that make the timing less of an issue? #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:14:57 +0000
KiraVClarke	@ECRchat 9pm works well and Thursdays are good, often less evening teaching on Thursdays. #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:14:59 +0000
KL_Wheat	@snarkyphd Yes, I think a less frequent chat might make it easier for people to chat earlier/later. Thoughts folks? #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:15:15 +0000
KL_Wheat	RT @epsgrads: Still time to get in on the #ECRchat action right now! Topic: Housekeeping, what's working, what's not - http://t.co/LV87NhfZ	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:16:14 +0000 cheeryresearch	@ECRchat weekly feels sociable, but also feel cheeky taking time 'out' of work each week #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:16:40 +0000

KL_Wheat	@helen_kara Very true, already many chats in the evenings, might be hard to avoid a clash #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:16:59 +0000
ECRchat	We could of course split into UK/EU and Au chats. We now have http://t.co/0Acj6acv #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:18:50 +0000
JackieKirkham	@KL_Wheat yes - #acwri do fortnightly I think, that works well #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:19:28 +0000
KL_Wheat	@ECRchat I would definitely vote against splitting this chat, but no reason why UK folk can't join West chat if easier #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:20:08 +0000 snarkyphd	I'm not keen on losing the global. RT @ECRchat: We could of course split into UK/EU and Au chats. We now have http://t.co/NSNGa2mE #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:20:13 +0000

ECRchat	RT @JackieKirkham: @KL_Wheat yes - #acwri do fortnightly I think, that works well #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:20:23 +0000 afrayn	@ECRchat possibly, though 10am might be an issue when teaching starts. #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:20:24 +0000 snarkyphd	Talking to myself is a bad sign isnâ€™t it? #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:20:58 +0000 urbanizationist	Looks like there's some good #phdchat and #ecrchat happening tonight.	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:23:10 +0000

ECRchat	Ok sounds like keeping it global, we can live with the new times as clocks go fwd/back, but should change to fortnightly? #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:23:40 +0000
KiraVClarke	Be a loss to lose global convo RT @ECRchat: We could of course split into UK/EU and Au chats. We now have http://t.co/gd5aLzRp #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:23:59 +0000
KL_Wheat	@afrayn Yes, but teaching clashes are possible no matter what time if daytime. Only way to avoid is chat evening, separate from Aus #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:24:08 +0000 DiseaseMapper	#ECRchat don't mind really. I never make it every week anyway, but I suppose I may make it even less if only every 2 weeks? #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:24:24 +0000
martin_eve	@KiraVClarke @ECRchat worth remembering that Twitter is both a synchronous & asynchronous medium; it's not lost, just not live #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:24:40 +0000
NickOsbaldiston	#ECRChat fortnightly works for me	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:24:43 +0000
JackieKirkham	@ECRchat I'd be happy w that - keep reg contact, but less hassle for hosts and less feeling like taking time from work #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:25:02 +0000
KL_Wheat	@martin_eve So true! Jump into the hashtag anytime and see who is about! Similar to #phdchat #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:25:38 +0000 helen_kara	@ECRchat Fortnightly makes it a long time between if you miss one. Can still update people in between though using #ECRchat hashtag	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:26:01 +0000 mhbastian	@snarkyphd :) maybel guess 11am might be a hard time for UK people as usually at work/meetings, evenings maybe more flexible? #ecrchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:26:47 +0000
ECRchat	Ok maybe if we move on we can come back and revisit key decisions at the end. Are there any key topics we need to get to soon? #ECRchat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:27:26 +0000

snarkyphd	@KL_Wheat @ECRchat I havenâ€™t been brave enough to host this one, as I donâ€™t have personal experience with it. We need a recruit! #ECRChat	Thu, 13 Sep 2012 10:35:12 +0000
